SETTLEMENT SERVICES IN THE BOW VALLEY

Connecting Immigrants and Community

Settlement Services in the Bow Valley offers free programs and services for Permanent Residents of Canada, Live-in Caregivers, Refugees, and Foreign Workers who are transitioning to permanent status. It does not matter how long you have been living in Canada.

We can help you with:

- Adjusting to life in Canada
- Information about community resources
- Understanding your rights, responsibilities and opportunities in Canada
- Information about family reunification, language learning, housing, health care, employment, finances, Canadian citizenship, cross-cultural understanding and more
- Assistance with forms
- Connecting with others in your community

In-School Support:

- Planning before your family arrives in Canada
- School registration and orientation
- Parent information sessions
- Ongoing student, family and school staff support
- After school and summer programs for students

Connect with us:

- Individual appointments and group sessions available
- Sign-up to receive our monthly newsletter
- Offices at Banff Town Hall, Canmore Civic Centre and in Schools
